

Kinjin room rules (huisregels)

Kinjin room: Room -1.219 in the Luna building of the TU/e.

Living room: Room -1.220 in the Luna Building of the TU/e. This room is shared with other Scala associations.

Kinjin activity: An activity on the Kinjin agenda, which can be found on the Kinjin website.

Kinjin room rules (November 2021):

1. Kinjin is not liable for the loss or theft of personal items.
2. Kinjin cannot be held liable for injury or damage incurred in the Kinjin room or during any of the Kinjin activities.
3. It is prohibited to take items owned by Kinjin or others out of the Kinjin room without permission of the board.
4. When leaving the Kinjin room or any Kinjin activity you ought to clean up your own trash. The board decides what qualifies as trash and can decide to throw trash away.
5. When locking the Kinjin room, all occupants ought to leave the room. In addition, everything must be in the right place, tidy and clean and all electronics must be turned off.
6. There must always be someone with key access present in the Kinjin room when it is unlocked.
7. Members with key access are not allowed to share their pin code with anyone.
8. Coats must be hung on the coat rack in the Living room or stored in such a way that others are not affected by them.
9. Bags must be stored in such a way that they do not cause any hindrance for others.
10. The board must be notified beforehand when a member wants to bring a non-member into the Kinjin room. This member is then responsible for all the actions performed by this non-member.
11. If someone causes a disturbance during a Kinjin activity, the host can prohibit that person access to the Kinjin activity. If the activity takes place in the Kinjin room, the host can also prohibit access to the Kinjin room for the remainder of the activity. If this rule is invoked, the host must submit a report to the board within 48 hours. The host determines what qualifies as a disturbance.
12. Any pornographic material or sexual acts are prohibited during any Kinjin activity and in the Kinjin room.
13. If you want to leave food in the Kinjin room, it must be labelled with your name and the date the food was left behind and then put in the food corner. After 7 days or if the food is unlabelled, any Kinjin member is allowed to consume the food, unless the owner of the food is present in the room.

Exemptions for rules can be discussed with the board.